Scott B. Garner is a partner at Umberg Zipser LLP in Irvine, California. He represents clients in complex business litigation matters, with a particular focus on professional liability disputes and ethics counseling. He has represented large, mid-size, and small law firms, along with individual lawyers, in pre-litigation and litigation disputes concerning claims of legal malpractice, ethical violations, and securities fraud arising from their litigation, transactional, and IP practices. He recently won a complete defense verdict in a legal malpractice jury trial. Scott also consults with clients on legal ethics issues, and has testified as an expert witness on ethics and standard of care issues.

Scott also represents a wide array of public and non-public companies in a variety of matters, including contract disputes, intellectual property disputes, securities litigation, and hospital and healthcare law matters.

Scott is active in Bar and community organizations. He currently is an officer (Treasurer) of the Orange County Bar Association, and serves as Co-Chair of the OCBA Professionalism and Ethics Committee. From 2010-16, he was a member of the California State Bar's Committee on Professional Responsibility and Conduct, serving as the Committee's Chair in 2014-15. He is a Past President of the Orange County Chapter of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers and a current member of the Board of Directors of the Junior State of America Foundation.

Scott earned a JD cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1991 and a B.A with distinction from Stanford University in 1988.
